Contents

Volume 21, Number 1, January 1994

Martin Kent: Guest Review Article: Ecology 2 or 3?—Some thoughts on introductory textbooks in ecology and biogeography 1

Mark B. Bush: Special Paper: Amazonian speciation: a necessarily complex model 5

C. H. Peng, J. Guiot, E. van Campo and R. Cheddadi: Special Paper: The vegetation carbon storage variation in Europe since 6000 BP: reconstruction from pollen 19

Vegetation patterns

Susan Ringrose, Wilma Matheson, C. J. S. S. Matlala, Toni O'Neill and Patricia A. Werner: Vegetation spectral reflectance along a north–south vegetation gradient in northern Australia 33

C. J. Geldenhuys: Bergwind fires and the location pattern of forest patches in the southern Cape landscape, South Africa 49

Nora E. Martijena and Stephen H. Bullock: Monospecific dominance of a tropical deciduous forest in México 63

Area and diversity

Johan Elmberg, Petri Nummi, Hannu Pöysä and Kjell Sjöberg: Relationships between species number, lake size and resource diversity in assemblages of breeding waterfowl 75

Gregory H. Adler: Avifaunal diversity and endemism on tropical Indian Ocean islands 85

Juan J. Morrone and Estela C. Lopretto: Distributional patterns of freshwater Decapoda (Crustacea: Malacostraca) in southern South America: a panbiogeographic approach 97

Book reviews 111

Volume 21, Number 2, March 1994

T. C. Whitmore: Guest Review Article: La Selva: a densely researched rain forest 117

C. B. Cox: Guest Review Article: Common inheritance v. convergent evolution—African and South American biogeography compared 119

Forest floristics

Jorge Meave and Martin Kellman: Maintenance of rain forest diversity in riparian forests of tropical savannas: implications for species conservation during Pleistocene drought 121

Hazel R. Delcourt and Paul A. Delcourt: Postglacial rise and decline of Ostrya virginiana (Mill.) K. Koch and Carpinus caroliniana Walt. in eastern North America: predictable responses of forest species to cyclic changes in seasonality of climates 137

Susan J. Warr, Martin Kent and Ken Thompson: Seed bank composition and variability in five woodlands in south-west England 151

Animal patterns

I. E. Bauer, J. McMorrow and D. W. Yalden: The historic ranges of three equid species in north-east Africa: a quantitative comparison of environmental tolerances 169

Mikko Mönkkönen: Diversity patterns in Palaearctic and Nearctic forest bird assemblages 183

Anders N. Nilsson, Johan Elmberg and Kjell Sjöberg: Abundance and species richness patterns of predaceous diving beetles (Coleoptera, Dytiscidae) in Swedish lakes 197

Jesús Hermida, Adolfo Outeiro and Teresa Rodríguez: Biogeography of terrestrial gastropods of north-west Spain 207

Book reviews 219

Volume 21, Number 3, May 1994

Forest regeneration

Giles M. Foody and Paul J. Curran: Estimation of tropical forest extent and regenerative stage using remotely sensed data 223

Robert J. Whittaker and Stephen H. Jones: The role of frugivorous bats and birds in the rebuilding of a tropical rain forest ecosystem. Krakatau, Indonesia 245

K. J. M. Dickinson and A. F. Mark: Forest-wetland vegetation patterns associated with a Holocene dune-slack sequence, Haast Ecological District, south western New Zealand 259

Jon D. Unruh: The role of land use pattern and process in the diffusion of valuable tree species 283

Ole R. Vetaas: Primary succession of plant assemblages on a glacier foreland—Bødalsbreen, southern Norway 297

Fossil assemblages

Glenn A. Goodfriend, R. A. D. Cameron and L. M. Cook: Fossil evidence of recent human impact on the land snail fauna of Madeira 309

Glen G. Fredlund and Larry T. Tieszen: Modern phytolith assemblages from the North American Great Plains 321

Book reviews 337

Volume 21, Number 4, July 1994

R. Hengeveld: Guest Editorial: Biogeographical ecology 341

Peter Forey: Guest Review Article: Little comfort for advocates of saltational evolution and mass extinctions 353

Michael Proctor: Guest Review Article: Broad concepts of wetlands—wide ranging reviews 357

Geographical and temporal variation

Peter H. Yaukey: Variation in racial dominance within the winter range of the dark-eyed junco (Junco hyemalis L.) 359

Robert Miles Sullivan: Micro-evolutionary differentiation and biogeographic structure among coniferous forest populations of the Mexican woodrat (Neotoma mexicana) in the American Southwest: a test of the vicariance hypothesis 369

Alejandro Gustavo Farji Brener and Adriana Ruggiero: Leaf-cutting ants (Atta and Acromyrmex) inhabiting Argentina: patterns in species richness and geographical range sizes 391

Douglas A. Frank and Richard S. Inouye: Temporal variation in actual evapotranspiration of terrestrial ecosystems: patterns and ecological implications 401

I. M. Turner: A quantitative analysis of leaf form in woody plants from the world's major broadleaved forest types 413

Two biogeographies

D. L. Kelly, E. V. J. Tanner, E. M. Nic Lughadha and V. Kapos: Floristics and biogeography of a rain forest in the Venezuelan Andes 421

A. Legakis and Z. Kypriotakis: A biogeographical analysis of the island of Crete, Greece 441

Book reviews 447

Volume 21, Number 5, September 1994

J. R. Grehan: Guest Editorial: The beginning and end of dispersal: the representation of 'panbiogeography' 451
R. C. Preece and S. P. Day: Special paper: Comparison of Post-glacial molluscan and vegetational successions from a radiocarbon-dated tufa sequence in Oxfordshire 463

Mainly Southern Hemisphere

Marc Colyn and Harry Van Rompaey: A biogeographic study of cusimanses (Crossarchus) (Carnivora, Herpestidae) in the Zaire Basin 479

Zbigniew Dzwonko and Jan Kornaś: Patterns of species richness and distribution of pteridophytes in Rwanda (Central Africa): a numerical approach 491

W. R. J. Dean, J. J. Midgley and W. D. Stock: The distribution of mistletoes in South Africa: patterns of species richness and host choice 503

D. M. Richardson, P. A. Williams and R. J. Hobbs: Pine invasions in the Southern Hemisphere: determinants of spread and invadability 511

A. V. Milewski, M. Apensberg-Traun and C. R. Dickman: Why are termite- and ant-eating mammals smaller in Australia than in southern Africa: history or ecology? 529

Adriana Ruggiero: Latitudinal correlates of the sizes of mammalian geographical ranges in South America 545

Book reviews 561

Volume 21, Number 6, November 1994

Paul Buckland: Special Review Article: Quaternary entomology comes of age 569

On fire and floods

Owen Price and D. M. J. S. Bowman: Fire-stick forestry: a matrix model in support of skilful fire management of Callitris intratropica R. T. Baker by north Australian Aborigines 573

Jean-Philippe Puyravaud, Jean-Pierre Pascal and Céline Dufour: Ecotone structure as an indicator of changing forest-savanna boundaries (Linganamakki Region, southern India) 581

David Ward and Leon Blaustein: The overriding influence of flash floods on species-area curves in ephemeral Negev Desert pools: a consideration of the value of island biogeography theory 595

A. Schnitzler: European alluvial hardwood forests of large floodplains 605

Further Southern Hemisphere biogeography

Mike Pole: The New Zealand flora—entirely long-distance dispersal? 625

M. Horrocks and J. Ogden: Modern pollen spectra and vegetation of Mt Hauhungatahi, central North Island, New Zealand 637

R. M. Cowling, E. T. F. Witkowski, A. V. Milewski and K. R. Newbey: Taxonomic, edaphic and biological aspects of narrow plant endemism on matched sites in mediterranean South Africa and Australia 651

Book reviews 665
